2) Neighborhood Updates

East Towne – A Neighborhood survey was distributed and the responses were helpful. They are focusing on identifying key issues within their neighborhood boundaries. A monthly newsletter is being drafted.

Southeast Siders – The Winter Social in February went very well. At their last neighborhood meeting, Joe Gehin and Deb Geier from the City Water Department were guest speakers who spoke about lead in water. Currently the Neighborhood is looking to spruce up Alexander Park. They don't want huge, expensive changes, but would like a fresher look with some added picnic tables, etc.

Forest Park Neighborhood – They had 38 people at their last monthly meeting. Robo calls are going out and they're working. Sean Gehin and Joe Gehin were guest speakers. They spoke about the stormwater referendum question the lead issue. A Briefing Sheet is provided at each meeting from the Wausau Police Department. This sheet provides important data on crime within their neighborhood. This sheet is also printed in their monthly newsletter.

3) Clean It Up, Wausau Discussion

Herring will contact WPD to ask for assistance from the Emergency Police with patrolling the area to prevent any illegal dumping. The event will be well staffed by Public Works employees. The attached schedule was discussed and finalized for volunteers:

Friday, 9-Noon: Jon Radtke, Mayor Tipple
Friday, Noon -4pm: DPW crew
Sat, 9-Noon: DPW crew.
Sat, Noon – 4pm: Jon Radtke, Janet Herring

A Press Release will go out from the Mayor's Office a week before the event.

4) Old/New Business
