Wisconsin Public Television features the City of Wausau and Marathon County

Mayor Jim Tipple is pleased to announce the airing of the Wisconsin Public Television's popular program "Around the Corner with John McGivern" that features the City of Wausau and Marathon County. The program airs at 7:00 p.m. on Wisconsin Public Television Channel 02 on Thursday, 2/27/14.

"Around the Corner with John McGivern" explores living, working and playing in Wisconsin's unique communities. John and his crew spent time in Wausau this past summer and again this winter showcasing the quality of life we all enjoy in central Wisconsin. John provides humorous anecdotes and highlights the four-season attributes Wausau residents and visitors enjoy.

From our top entertainment venues, the Grand Theater and the 400 Block to the artistic Woodson Art Museum, to the sport of kayaking along the Wisconsin River, Curling and skiing Granite Peak, this program is one your family and friends won't want to miss.

The Wausau/Central Wisconsin Convention and Visitors Bureau have copies of this program available on DVD for purchase. Contact them to reserve a copy at 715-355-8788.
